

TOMODACHI Tanaka Sangyo Agricultural Exchange Initiative

Climate & Food System Awareness

Empowering Tomorrow's Leaders in Sustainable Agriculture

Innovative 10-month leadership program designed to tackle global challenges in climate change and agriculture.

Bringing together 20 students from partner schools in Niigata, Japan, and Texas, USA this initiative emphasizes self-reflection, awareness, and a deep understanding of the interconnectedness of our world.

PROGRAM SCHEDULE

Online Sessions
2024-2025

- 1 Oct-Dec 2024
- 2 Apr-Jun 2025

In-Person Sessions
USA & Japan

- Texas, USA
March 2025
- Niigata, Japan
July 2025

- Program Fee is covered by Scholarship (includes roundtrip between Texas and Niigata, accomodation, travel Insurance)
- Internet fee, device costs, passport application fee, and personal expenses are not included.
- This program is for students from partner schools in Niigata and Texas. Attendance for all sessions and training are required. Students must provide their own space and equipment for online sessions.

Online Information Sessions:

- April 24 (Wed) at 7:00 pm-8:00 pm CST
- April 27 (Sat) at 12:00 pm-1:00 pm CST

Cultivating Leadership

Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs)

Connecting with Local Resources

Cross-Cultural Learning

APPLY NOW!
Deadline:
May 31, 2024

